

May 1, 2008 – EZsurgical, Ltd. announce Tzur Di-Cori as new CEO.

{Yokneam, Israel} EZsurgical's Board of Directors and Search Committee has approved Tzur Di-Cori as Chief Executive Officer effective May 1st. Mr. Haim Eliash who chaired the search committee will remain as a Board Member and assume responsibility as CEO at the Naiot Venture Accelerator (www.naiot.com). Mr. Eliash elaborated on the task of finding "a genuine leader with a multi-cultural background to bring EZsurgical to its next level" deliberate and decisive, and expressed confidence in having "chosen the right candidate for the job".

Mr. DiCori's decorated professional background includes holding several executive level management positions at Card Guard (Symbol: CARDG, Swiss Stock Exchange) dating back to 1992, most recently as Chief Operating Officer where he lead the company through a successful IPO on the Swiss Stock Exchange and subsequent reorganization and M&A activity.

In addition to his professional career, Mr. DiCori served four years in the Israeli Defense Forces as an Airborne Communications and Navigations Specialist.